THE ART OF BOOK FOLDING

Adult Workshop at Goleta Library

SANTA BARBARA, CA – April 8, 2014

Have you heard about the art form called book folding? The Santa Barbara Public Library System invites adults to the Goleta Library to learn the fundamentals of folding book pages to form sculptural works of art. This program takes place Saturday, April 13 from 2 to 4 p.m. The Goleta Library is located at 500 North Fairview Avenue, Goleta. To reserve a spot in the class or for more information call Allison Gray at the Library, 805-964-7878.

Book folding is a creative hobby that incorporates repurposing old books by making origami-like folds in their pages to form representational or abstract works of art. The library will supply the books. Attendees should be prepared to have some fun making folded books, suitable for display on a wall or shelf.

All Library programs are free and open to the public. For information about programs and services of the Santa Barbara Public Library System, please visit SBPLibrary.org, or your local branch library.
